The National Library of Singapore

The National Library of Singapore is located a 16 story tall building, recently built in 2005. The library has over 200,000 books and also has a performing arts centre with a 615 seat theatre. The building is adorned with multiple gardens that feature views of the city of Singapore.